The Only Way to Win Jim Loehr 2012-05-08 Why Winning with Character Is the Only Way to Win The conditioning begins early in our lives. Great achievements will bring lasting happiness and fulfillment; great achievements form the bedrock of stable self-esteem and strong character; great achievements will become the foundation for a successful life. If these well-intentioned promises are true, why does winning never seem to be enough? In The Only Way to Win, Jim Loehr draws upon two decades of work with Fortune 500 executives; world-class athletes such as Monica Seles, Dan Jansen, and Eric Lindros; and other high achievers at the Human Performance Institute (HPI) to reveal surprising insights about achievement motivation. Specifically, Loehr finds that the blind pursuit of external achievement often results in emptiness, addiction, and, ironically, poor performance. It's not really about what you achieve, he argues, it's about who you become as a consequence of the chase. As Loehr powerfully demonstrates, success at work and fulfillment in life require a complete re-purposing of achievement, one where value is derived from growth in areas such as integrity, honesty, gratefulness, humility, optimism, and compassion. To help readers start this process, he provides them with the tools they need to develop these character traits, as well as the plan they need to use them effectively. A compelling, practical, and hopeful read filled with relatable stories and useful exercises, The Only Way to Win will serve as a powerful wake-up call for business leaders, employees, teachers, and coaches. It will also provide inspiration for readers looking to perform better, achieve more, and change both their own lives and those of the people they influence. Jim Loehr is a world-renowned performance psychologist, co-founder of the Human Performance Institute, and author of fifteen books, including his most recent, The Power of Story. He also co-authored the national bestseller The Power of Full Engagement.

Leading with Character Jim Loehr 2020-09-23 PRAISE FOR LEADING WITH CHARACTER "Leading with Character can help you sharpen and define your potential legacy and, in the course of doing that, will make you a better leader in all aspects of your life." —CHIP BERGH, CEO, Levi Strauss & Co. "As a fan of Dr. Loehr's for over twenty years, I have been amazed by the continued evolution of his concepts while maintaining the initial building blocks he identified over thirty years ago. Leading with Character provides us with the source code required to define our own self-determined purpose while extending our thinking beyond self-interest to incorporate a more fulfilling concern for others." —PETER SCATURRO, former CEO of U.S. Trust, Partner at Goldman Sachs, and Managing Partner at PKS Group "As a journalist, I've been interviewing and writing about business leaders for four decades now, and I firmly believe something has changed profoundly in the last five to ten years. Business leadership has become less about giving orders, more about setting example; less about articulating a detailed strategy, more about setting values, directions, and guard rails. As a result, character becomes much more important. People want to work for someone whom they view as a moral leader, and they will model his or her behavior. The radical transparency of today's world means they will quickly see through leaders who are not authentic, and identify those who are. Character becomes critical." —ALAN MURRAY, CEO, Fortune Media Corporation "The unprecedented challenges of the twenty-first century demand leaders of every stripe who share one common attribute—a strong character of integrity and honor. After a half-century of studying and coaching world-class performers in all walks of life, this special book is Jim Loehr's magnum opus. His rigorous training program applies the modern science of human performance to the classical wisdom of character development. This practical guide is for those who have the courage and perseverance to follow this proven path to a life of significance by becoming your best self. If you are up for the challenge, read this book, turn off social media, and get to work." —CAPTAIN GEORGE DOM, USN (Ret.), former commanding officer and flight leader of the Navy's Blue Angels

InSideOut Coaching Joe Ehrmann 2011-08-02 In this inspirational yet practical book, the man Parade called "the most important coach in America," subject of the national bestseller Season of Life, Joe Ehrmann, describes his coaching philosophy and explains how sports can transform lives at every level of play, from the earliest years to professional sports. Coaches have a tremendous platform, says Joe Ehrmann, a former Syracuse University All-American and NFL star. Perhaps second only to parents, coaches can impact young people as no one else can. But most coaches fail to do the teaching, mentoring, even life-saving intervention that their platform provides. Too many are transactional coaches; they focus solely on winning and meeting their personal needs. Some coaches, however, use their platform. They teach the Xs and Os, but also teach the Ys of life. They help young people grow into responsible adults; they leave a lasting legacy. These are the transformational coaches. These coaches change lives, and they also change society by helping to develop healthy men and women. InSideOut Coaching explains how to become a transformational coach. Coaches first have to "go inside" and articulate their reasons for coaching. Only those who have taken the InSideOut journey can become transformational. Joe Ehrmann provides examples of coaches in his life who took this journey and taught him how to find something bigger than himself in sports. He describes his own InSideOut experience, starting with the death of his beloved brother, which helped him understand how sports could transcend the playing field. He gives coaches the information and the tools they need to become transformational. Joe Ehrmann has taken his message about the extraordinary power of sports all over the country. It has been warmly endorsed by NFL head coaches, athletic directors at major universities, high school head coaches, even business groups and community organizations. Now any parent-coach or school or community coach can read Ehrmann's message and learn how to make sports a life-changing experience.
